

St. Peter's U.C.C. Lock-in Contract

Lock-In Rules:

1. All youth/children will remain inside the church. If it is discovered that a youth/child has left the church, their parents and the police will need to be called in seeking to assure the youth's/child's safety.
2. All participants will abide by a general rule of respect: respect for others, respect for one's self (with regard to unsafe behavior), respect for this church and respect for God.
3. Each participant will volunteer or be placed on one of two or three "crews:" vespers/worship crew, breakfast crew or game clean-up and prep crew. Everyone will share leadership in one of these areas.
4. All participants must abide by the schedule set for the evening and participate in all activities, including any scheduled sleeping time.
5. Everyone is expected to help clean-up the church prior to departure.

I have read these rules and understand that they must be followed. I also understand that not following these rules could result in my being sent home.
